July 4th events in NYC: Rooftop parties, barbecues and more

Yes, we New Yorkers live in a melting pot, but somehow the cultural diversity that fills our everyday lives makes taking at least one day every year to celebrate the good old U S of A that much sweeter.

So put on your best red, white and blue and get ready to party, because NYC's going all out this year, from bottomless barbecues, brunches and boat cruises to rooftop revelry.

Which option you'll choose is up to you-- this is the land of the free, after all.

For pool time

What's better than spending the Fourth of July poolside? Spending it poolside on a SoHo rooftop with views of the Macy's fireworks, of course. You'll also be sipping hand-crafted cocktails and snacking on burgers, kobe franks in a blanket, charcuterie and cheese plates and dancing to a live DJ. This all goes down at Jimmy at the James New York at 5 p.m.

Where: 15 Thompson St., Manhattan
