12 New Rooftop Venues for Summer Events

Rooftop venues are a popular choice for summer events. New rooftop spaces offer views that make for unforgettable backdrops to events—whether they are located in the heart of New York City, South Beach, or the Las Vegas Strip. Here are some of the newest rooftop bars, restaurants, and pool decks to open coast to coast.

Spyglass

One of New York's newest rooftop bars is Spyglass, which opened in June on the 22nd floor of the just-opened Archer Hotel in the garment district. The indoor-outdoor space from David Burke Group offers full views of the Empire State Building from sleek highboy tables or tufted purple leather barstools, a design style that mixes in references to the 1940s and 1950s. Sypglass serves small plates from the hotel's restaurant, David Burke Fabrick. It holds 115 people for receptions.
