Spyglass from David Burke and More Restaurant Openings

Restaurant openings around the country, and around the world, for the week of June 8

Every week, we take a look at some of the restaurants that have opened or will soon open across the country. Here's this week's roundup:

New York:

Spyglass: David Burke's newest rooftop bar concept is located at the Archer Hotel. Guests can enjoy specialty cocktails from mixologist Joe Golia including Empire State (a blend of Hendricks gin, St. Germaine ginger and Basil; Top of the World (aperol, watermelon, St. Germain, prosecco), and Mezjito (a twist on the classic mojito with Union Uno Mezcal, lime, cucumber, mint and simple syrup).
