

August 3, 2015

Watermelon Cocktails to Die for in This Summer Heat

Today is National Watermelon Day!

You could celebrate with a popsicle, a delicious watermelon feta salad, or a few slices, but you'd be best to refresh with a nothing other than a watermelon cocktail.

Although not the most common drink ingredient, it certainly pairs well. Watermelon is actually the perfect compliment to numerous staple cocktail ingredients—mint, elderflower and lime juice, to name a few. What's more, be it juiced, muddled or as a garnish, introducing the fruit is a fun (and delicious) way to add a bit of freshness to your booze. So if you're a fan of garden-to-glass or just want something refreshing for a summer happy hour, any of the below watermelon cocktails will do.

Top of the World

1 oz. Aperol
1/4 oz. Saint
Germaine
3 oz. Prosecco
Top with watermelon
juice