

July 2, 2014

GOING OUT

PARTY ON, PATRIOTS

Eats. The rain won't wash away these July 4 specials.

The Fourth of July is about the patriotic celebration of our freedoms. So exercise your right to the best food and drinks in the country, if New York City does say so itself.

Food with a view

Spyglass

The Archer Hotel's new rooftop bar is barely old enough in days to drink legally, but you certainly can, with indoor and outdoor seating and cocktails like You Look Smashing that echo the '50s vibe. As a David Burke Group property, you'll be well served by the shareable plates.
47 W. 38th St., 212-719-4100